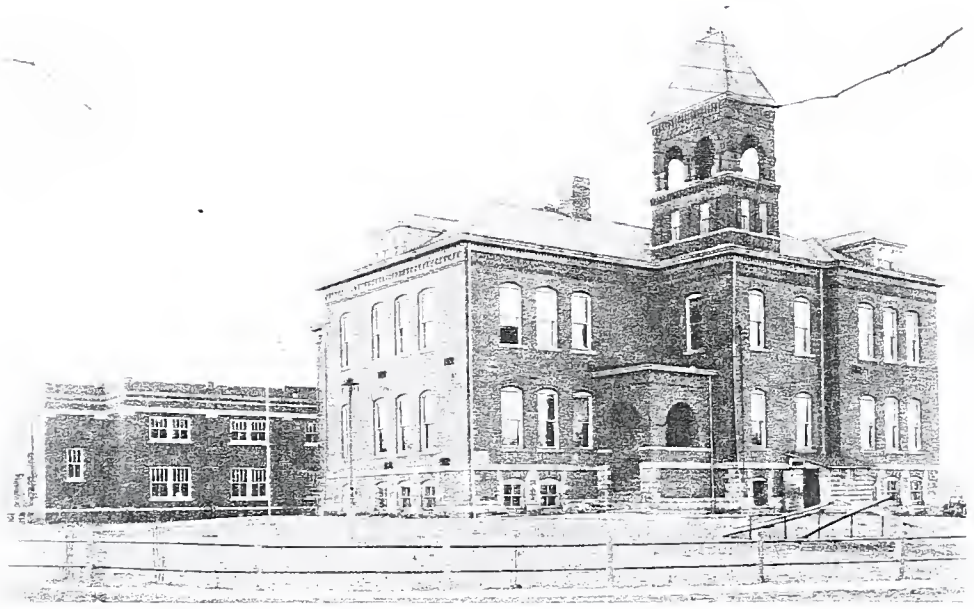
Star City High School



DEDICATION

To the Twinkler of future years and to each loyal business man and citizen who has contributed to her welfare, we respectfully dedicate this yearbook with its story of life in Star City High.

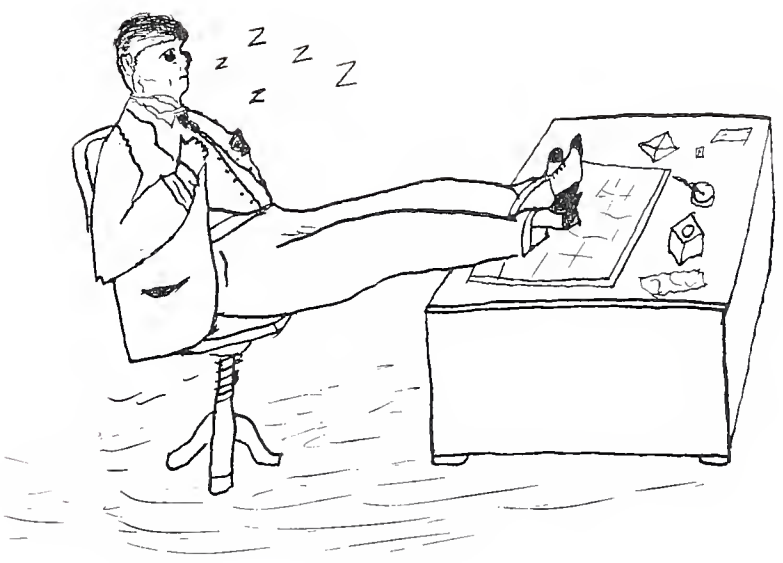
The Senior Class

FOREWORD

It is with the hope of leaving one lasting achievement after four enjoyable years in high school that we, the Senior Class of 1940, publish this glamorous Twinkler.

On these pages we have endeavored to portray, both pictorially and editorially, the daily student life within the walls of our little red school building.

In years to come, after the installation of a more modern scholastic institution, we hope that this book may serve as a reminder of earnest endeavor under limited circumstances, and as an inspiration to those who have greater opportunities for education.



FACULTY

GERALDINE THOMPSON

L. R. CARPENTER

VERA PEIGH

Mr. D. P. Surber, has this spring, completed his seventh successful year as principal of our high school. He received his B. S. degree in 1932 at Ball State Teachers College, and other training at Indiana University. He specializes in mathematics.

Mr. Lloyd R. Carpenter has been teaching here for four years. He received his education at Ball State Teachers College, from where he graduated in 1931. He obtained additional training at Indiana State College, and also Tri-State College. His subjects are physics, biology, mathematics, and Jr. high social studies.

Mr. Gale Metzger has been with us for two years. He graduated from Manchester College in 1933 with an A. B. degree. He teaches Latin and Social studies.

Mr. Charles L. Byfield has attended school at Butler University, and also at the Arthur Jordan Conservatory of music. He has been our only music teacher here in this school for a number of years and has built up a reputation all over the northern part of this state with his band and other musical organizations.

Mr. N. Ray Reed, our coach, went to Ball State Teachers College, where he received his B. S. degree. He also attended the Purdue coaching school. He teaches physical education, arithmetic, and health and safety. This is his first year in our school.

Next comes Miss Vera Peigh. She has been our class sponsor since we were sophomores. She received her education at Ball State Teachers College from which she graduated in 1935. Her subjects are commerce and English.

Miss Geraldine Thompson is one of our new teachers. She received her A. B. degree from Lindenwood College at St. Charles, Missouri, her M. A. degree at the University of Illinois, and has attended the Library of the University of Illinois. Her subject is English.

Mrs. Marjorie Boomershine is another new teacher. She teaches home economics, physical education, and health and safety. She received her training from Indiana State Teachers College at Terre Haute, Indiana.

The Class of 1940 holds the distinction of being the last class to graduate from the old school building. We believe that we have done our duty in upholding our place among our predecessors in the fields of music, sports, dramatics, and scholastic enterprises.

We first made a bid for public recognition in our sophomore year, when we won the class basketball tournament from the seniors in the final few seconds of play. Our basketball prestige among the other classes has never since been questioned.

In our Junior year, the class successfully presented the play, "My Wife's Family". The class also sponsored a series of four lyceum programs which were graciously accepted by the school and community. Then in the spring we entertained the seniors in a gala Junior-Senior Banquet, held at the Barnes Hotel at Logansport. The banquet was followed by a theater party at the Logan Theater.

This year has been the greatest and most enjoyable one in our high school career. This year when the softball season rolled around, the senior boys on the team did their best for Star City High, however the Stars were defeated by the tournament champions on the narrow margin of one run. At the close of the softball season, Coach Reed called the first basketball practice, and among those turning out were the five senior veterans who became the starting crew for the Stars in nearly all of their encounters. The boys were successful in again winning the Pulaski County Basketball Tournament, and the trophy thus won is now in the school collection. In the spring of our senior year, we presented the play, "Don't Look Now", much to the approval of the audience which filled the auditorium.

CLASS HISTORY

Twelve years, minus four and one-half months ago, twenty-three bashful boys and girls entered this school. They were LaVerl Alley, Paul Bauman, Harold Buntin, Alice Bonnell, Ruth Erispen, Leroy DeArmond, Thomas Densborn, Mary Jane Depoy, Alfred Gellinger, Don Hinshaw, Harrietta Hastings, Dorothy Johnson, Calvin Jones, Paul Kessler, Bob Korner, Harold Knebel, La Verne Liming, Harold Marquis, Margaret Rafferty, Richard Raub, Bob Skillen, Harry Fry, Blanche Starck, and Eugene Brugh, directed by Mrs. Della Warner.

We entered the next year of training leaving behind Blanche Starck, and Harry Fry. Mary Jones, Jeannetta Nice, Betty Darland, and Walter Hauser joined our ranks. Here we were greeted by Grace Densborn and Dorothy Surber as our commanders. We left Freddie Hartle, LaVerne Liming and Harold Foust, who spent another year there.

At the beginning of our third year of school training we found several new students waiting to join our ranks. They were T. J. Black, Maria Dean, Stella Clements, Esther Jump, Wilbur Scott, Mary Helen Smith, Eva Kline and Neil Herrick. Again some were left behind. They were: Alfred Gellinger, Calvin Jones, and Eva Kline.

At the beginning of our fourth year we found that we were unfit for battle; our ranks had dropped to twenty-one. But during the year we gained Priscilla Shipley and Mary McQuiere.

When we entered the fifth grade, Mrs. Maude Buck greeted us. Billy Figley, Harry Thomas, and Glenn Purkey joined us there.

Still with Mrs. Buck, we met several new students in the sixth grade. They were Mae McClain, Sylvia Hedger, and Richard Raub. We left behind, Paul Bauman and Harry Thomas.

Our great move was yet to be taken. We climbed the steps to where we met Mr. Surber, Mr. Byfield, Mr. Huffman, Mr. Jeffery, Miss Esther Geier, Miss Harrison, and Miss Lillian Geier. We gained Bonita Davis to our class roll.

On our return to school the next year we found that we had lost Bonita Davis, Agnes Fox, Don Hinshaw, Dorothy, Harry, and Zela Thomas, Seth White, and Pricilla Shipley.

We started in as freshmen with several students from both Fairview and Thornhope schools. We began with Hazel Adams, Paul Bauman, Alice Bonnell, Burl Bonnell, Gerald Bonnell, Pauline Bonnell, Leroy DeArmond, Tom Densborn, Don Fahler, William Flegal, Herbert Galbreath, Wilma Good, William Green, Junior Gunter, Sylvia Hedger, Ivan Haselby, Harold Knebel, Bob Korner, Mae McClain, Hilda Mitchell, Mabel Moon, Harold Murphy, Margaret Rafferty, Dick Raub, Harold Rude, Mary Helen Smith, Delores Stites, Earl Sutton, and Madeline Malia. During the year we lost Hazil Adams, William Flegal, Junior Gunter, Sylvia Hedger, Delores Stites, and Earl Sutton. In our Freshman year the faculty was composed of D. P. Surber, Mrs. Myrtle Valentine, Ewing Hazlett, Miss Lillian Geier, Miss Lois Eldridge, Lloyd Carpenter, and Charles L. Byfield.

In the sophomore year we lost Gerald Bonnell, Harrietta Hastings, Harold Rude, and Paul Bauman, however we gained Rosetta Malia. It was during this year that we first came into the school spotlite. This was achieved when five boys from our class won the class basketball tournament. The faculty was changed this year with the coming of Miss Vera Peigh in place of Mrs. Valentine, and also the arrival of Donovan Jacoby to act as coach.

In the junior year we lost Madeline and Rosetta Malia. In November of this year, we presented the three act comedy, "My Wife's Family", which met with the approval of the huge audience that filled the auditorium. This year the faculty was again revised when Miss Mary Boegaholtz replaced Miss Lillian Geier, Gale Metzger replaced Miss Eldridge, and Miss Jean Imel was added to the present faculty.

Our senior year has been our most enjoyable year of all. Our graduating class is as follows: Alice Bonnell, Burl Bonnell, Pauline Bonnell, Leroy DeArmond, Thomas Densborn, Don Fahler, Wilma Good, Herbert Galbreath, Ivan Haselby, Harold Knebel, Bob Korner, Mae McClain, Hilda Mitchell, Mabel Moon, Harold Murphy, Dick Raub, Margaret Rafferty, Mary Helen Smith, and Mabel Vanscoyk. In April of this year our class presented the play, "Don't Look Now". The faculty was changed this year when N. Ray Reed replaced Donovan Jacoby, and Mrs. Marjorie Boomershine replaced Miss Boegaholtz.

CLASS WILL

We, The Senior Class of 1940, will and bequeath to the lower classmen many of our accomplishments, habits, and possessions with the admonition that you make good use of them.

I, Alice Bonnell, do will and bequeath my carefree walk to Thelma Hoover, and my affection for the Grass Creek boys to Maxine Leasure.

I, Burl Bonnell, do will and bequeath my temper to Gertrude Hood, and my love for a certain sophomore girl to Arden Wank.

I, Pauline Bonnell, do will and bequeath my peculiar laugh to Juanita Clark and my typing grades to Burton McClellan.

I, Leroy DeArmond, do will and bequeath my soft voice to Sarah Jane Wank, and my dark beard to William Malia.

I, Thomas Densborn, do will and bequeath my height to James Abbott, and my bass voice to Richard Lee Smith.

I, Don Fahler, do will and bequeath my ability to play the Beer Barrel Polka to Orval Burgess, and my talkative nature to Walter Miller.

I, Herbert Galbreath, do will and bequeath my beautiful hair to Lois Russell and my old green suit to Bob Haselby.

I, Wilma Good, do will and bequeath my charming personality to Earnest Kelley, and my ability to keep my boyfriends fooled to Georgia Linedecker.

I, Ivan Haselby, do will and bequeath my readiness to recite in economics class to Dick Bonnell, my ability to play basketball to Arden Wank.

I, Harold Knebel, do will and bequeath my friendliness to Mary Ann White, and my good looks to Stanley Lemmon.

I, Robert Korner, do will and bequeath my good conduct in economics class to Jane Hoesel, and my physics book to the furnace.

I, Mae McClain, do will and bequeath my red hair to Mildred Lemmon, and my ability to grade papers for the English teacher to Willard Hauser.

I, Hilda Mitchell, do will and bequeath my figure to Loretta Markley, and my ability to get good grades to anyone with sufficient intelligence.

I, Mabel Moon, do will and bequeath my high heeled shoes to Annabelle Staffeldt, and my ability to change my hair dress to Maxine Batty.

I, Harold Murphy, do will and bequeath the sousaphone to Lois Ann Bishop, and my position on the softball team to Eugene Graves.

I, Richard Raub, do will and bequeath my oversized feet to Claud Hair, and my shyness around the girls to Bill Vernon.

I, Margaret Rafferty, do will and bequeath my ability to primp during class to Maxine Gellinger, and my ability for getting dates to Mary Tack.

I, Mary Helen Smith, do will and bequeath my ability as a beautician to Pearl Allen, and my ambitious feelings to Junior Grant.

I, Mabel Vanscoyk, do will and bequeath my ability to keep secrets to Jeanne Cooper, and my office position to Betty Capper.

We, the seniors, will and bequeath to the faculty, the pleasant memories of the class of 1940.

Senior Class Poem

The end has come, as come it must
To all things; in sweet April days
The teacher and the scholar trust
Their parting feet to separate ways
They part; but in the years to be
Shall pleasant memories cling to each
As shells bear inland from the sea
The murmur of the rhythmic beach
So shall the stream of time flow by
And leave each year a richer good,
And learned lovliness outvie,
The nameless charm of scholarhood
And, when the world shall link your names
With gracious lines and manners fine,
The teacher shall assert her claims,
And proudly whisper, "They were mine!"

CLASS PROPHECY

It was a cold, bleak December night when I sat looking out of our living room window watching the soft white snow flakes hastily making their way to the ground. When suddenly, the snow flakes melted into view a warm and cozy cottage near Thornhope. There sat Don Fahler, who is now an aged bachelor and mayor of Thornhope.

From here, I saw into the office of Robert Korner, who followed his life's ambition to become a dentist. There in his office in New York, he is working on a set of false teeth for Mrs. Korner(Mrs. Korner was formerly Margaret Rafferty). Margaret's teeth were knocked out as a result of one of their many and famous fights.

Ah! The interior of a church, where an organ is softly playing, "I Promise You". Here comes Harold Knebel and Hilda Mitchell marching up to the altar to take the vows that will forever bind those two hearts as one.

I then beheld the soft rippling waters of Florida. On looking up I saw posed a young auburn haired girl ready to dive. It is our former classmate Mae McClain, who is now the champion girl-diver of the United States.

Then a great explosion!!I looked and saw a great factory with the neon lights announcing to all that it was Raub's Scientific Laboratory. That explosion was just one of Dick's atoms that got loose. We always knew that Dick would be a great scientist some day.

In a large courtroom at Reno, gavel in hand, D. P. Surber, formerly my principal at Star City High School, is granting a divorce to a young couple. The couple I recognized as Leroy DeArmond and Mabel Vanscoyk. He told the judge that she had been running around with other men.

I now perceived Alice Bonnell standing before a microphone. What is she doing? Why, she is giving her hour of recipes on the "Cook Awhile Hour". In the background are her cooks; they happen to be her two smiling daughters, Alvina and Margaret, who mix the ingredients as she mentions them. Do you think their husbands will have to slip the biscuits under the table to "Spotty" after all of this experience? Well I hope not, but I shouldn't be surprised.

Mary Helen Smith had a very hard time, it seems, deciding between a career or a marriage. So she, after much debating, chose to be a beauty parlor operator. As you all remember, Mary Helen always was a beautician.

The next sight to meet my eyes was that of a school room, and at the desk, ruler in hand, sits a very young teacher; it is Wilma Good. Wilma, it seems, has forgotten all about school days, for she is sending a small child up to the office, and as the office door opens, do you know who the principal is? None other than Mr. Thomas Densborn.

There is Burl Bonnell, knocking on doors. He is selling toothpicks that won't break or bend and he is really convincing the people. When he flashes that smile, the women will buy almost anything from him.

In large horned rimmed glasses, I see Harold Murphy taking a course at The College of Bugology. Harold always said, "Thumbs down on being a teacher", but he must have changed his mind, for he surely is working hard for his diploma.

The clicking of a typewriter attracted my attention so I looked hastily, and saw a familiar face. Who was it? Why, it was Pauline Bonnell, and her employer is Herbert Galbreath. You know the old saying,"She Married Her Boss", but will she? Only a few more months at work will tell.

Mabel Moon runs a small knick-knack and candy shop. Someone walks in and Mabel chases the large yellow angora cat out of the candy case, long enough to sell the candy.

Thinking of the destination of my classmates, I compared their situation with that of my own. I am now coaching the Star City basketball team, and we have just won the hardest game of the season easily, and, for an instant the vision returned and showed us playing in the sectional------ but the snow has started heavier and my vision is completely blinded by it.

ACTIVITIES

SENIOR PLAY

"Don't Look Now", a three act comedy was presented by the senior class on April 10, 1940, in the gymnasium. Miss Geraldine Thompson was director.

The cast was as follows:

John Sherman	Father	Burl Bonnell
Ethel Sherman	Mother	Pauline Bonnell
Bernice Sherman	Daughter	Margaret Rafferty
Ray Sherman	Son	Thomas Densborn
Lois Sherman	Daughter	Alice Bonnell
Herbert Hayes	Cousin	Ivan Haselby
Grandpa Sherman	Grandpa	Harold Murphy
Lynne Drydenll	Girl friend	Wilma Good
Vincent Berger	Boy friend	Robert Korner
Evangeline "Vangie" Ross	Hired girl	Mabel Vanscoyk
Arilla Temple	Neighbor	Hilda Mitchell

For financial reasons the Shermans wish to make a desirable impression on rich "Cousin Herbert". When he arrives unexpectedly in the form of a tramp, they treat him with disrespectfullness and contempt little supposing that he is their expected guest.

The infusion of a candid camera artist makes the turmoil complete, and the hilarity exceeds all bounds.

Grandpa and his ailments; Arilla, the talkative spinster neighbor; Vincent, the "soda squirt"; Lois, the vivacious younger daughter; and Vangie, the hired girl, add major shares to the strong comedy that runs throughout the play.

The congested plot is brought to a speedy solution in the third act, and the audience is convinced that the best policy is: "Don't Look Now".

JUNIOR PLAY

The junior play, "Aunt Tillie Goes to Town", directed by Miss Geraldine Thompson, was presented November 1, 1939, before an appreciative house.

The cast was as follows:

Aunt Tillie Trask	Eccentric maid	Josephine Berkshire
Lucinda Talbot	Maid	Mary Margaret McClure
Mervin Tucker	Pamela's fiance	Richard Lee Smith
Ronald Howland	Stranger	Claud Hair
Lizzie Parsons	Young Novelist	Mary Ann White
Pamela Marsh	Tillie's niece	Marjorie Parish
Luther Lacrimer	Ronald's employer	Bill Vernon
Ellen Neiland	Stranger	Mildred Lemmon
Charlie One Lung	Chinese cook	Darrell Righter
Mrs. Tillie Tucker	Mervin's aunt	Maxine Leisure
Dr. Hattie Bing	Chiropracter	Sarah Jane Wank

Aunt Tillie Trask is occupying her country home near a smart summer resort. She is greatly upset because her niece, Pamela Marsh, has announced her impending marriage to Mervin Tucker. She is suddenly called to town and while she is packing her suitcase, Mervin Tucker arrives. He deposits his suitcase in Aunt Tillie's livingroom and she mistakes it for her own. Mervin is attired in Aunt Tillie's clothes and Aunt Tillie is at her wit's end trying to figure things out.

The fun is at its height when Dr. Hattie Bing, a strong and effioient chiropractor, arrives and insists on giving the hopeless Aunt Tillie a thorough examination.

ATHLETICS

Last fall the Star City softball team did not have a very successful season, winning only two out of seven scheduled games.

In the county softball tournament, the Stars were beaten in the first game by a strong Medaryville team, who went on to win the tournament.

The softball team will lose four players by the graduation route, who are as follows: Burl Bonnell, Harold Murphy, Leroy DeArmond, and Bob Korner.

In basketball the Stars were far more successful, winning fourteen out of twenty-two games. In the blind tournament, held at Monterey, the Stars succeeded in reaching the finals by defeating a strong Monterey team. Grass Creek defeated a hard fighting Kewanna quintet to advance to the finals. However the competition proved to be too tough for the Stars and when the battle was over the Creeks were out in front eight points.

In the annual Pulaski County Basketball Tournament, held in the new Francesville gymnasium, the Stars proved to have just a little more class than the rest of the quintets in this county.

The Stars advanced to the finals by defeating a stubborn Pulaski team in a very close and fast conflict. In the final and deciding game of the tournament, the Stars bucked up against a seasoned Medaryville team. The game was fast from start to finish with neither team leading over four points at any one time. When the smoke of battle had finally cleared away, however the score was four points in favor of Star City. At the close of this conflict, the trophy was presented to Captain Korner by Don L. Crise.

In the second team tournament the Starlets were not quite as successful as were the Stars. They advanced to the final game by defeating a strong Monterey team and a determined Francesville five, only to meet with defeat at the hands of the Medaryville reserve squad.

They say life is a highway and its milestones are the years,
And now and then there's a toll-gate where you pay your way with tears.
It's a rough road and a steep road and it stretches broad and far,
But it leads at last to a Golden Town where Golden Houses are.

We extend best wishes in the vocations you will select.
